1.) solid ground

this is not how I imagined I would feel when I finally decided to go this way for real I just knew that somewhere on the way I would find the words to say:

it's far more rewarding in every single way than the life I was leading suffering everyday in my heart I've always been where I am now still I did my best to ignore it somehow

and just hold on to every belief
that helps me feel strong
(I) won't turn around
now that my feet are walking on solid ground

this is not how...

my feet are walking on solid ground

and just hold on
(I) won't turn around

2.) discover who you are stand up straight your back against a wall close your eyes and imagine feeling really, really small like being a child again.

imagine you can hear a distant voice telling you that most things in your life happen by choice. could you believe it?

nothing can distort your point of view here.
discover who you are inside and never feel the need to hide again.

if it's true that nothing stays the same, take a turn,
only you can change the rules in your own game. try being a child again.

invent what's missing, paint what you desire, make a wish spend time with books and records you admire or just do nothing no one can distort your point of view here.

the only constant thing in life is change. who's to say that you're better off not trying to rearrange your way of living let the people talk and make your mind up discover who you are inside...

3.) I am tired

of people telling each other what to do

of seeing someone else's goals inside of you

I am ready to look at every way of life in sympathy

to taste it even if it's not my cup of tea you invited me for one last try and I'm happy now to say goodbye there's so much more out there

(la la la la la la la la la la la la la)

(la la la la la la la la la la la la la) that I just can't let go by take a good look at my face today for soon I'm gonna turn the other way

I'll never know for sure (la la la la la la)

if I don't go ahead and try

of bigger, better, faster, more - mentality

that what you get is hardly ever what you see

to quit the race and find out what life means to me

to recreate a new sense of reality you invited me... if I don't go ahead, if I don't go ahead...

if I don't go ahead and try

4.) change it in your mind if your day is gray the clouds won't go away

nothing's going right there's no end in sight

last one in a row everywhere you go

caught up in the race feeling out of place

I won't ask you not to tell me that I'm wrong but don't do it in the middle of my song, don't crush my heart I need it beating to my tune.

or the choice to back up all that I enjoy don't reprimand my inner child when we're off to the moon pressure from the top never gonna stop

even when you win still the lines too thin

just like me you look for happiness inside for a way that works for you to get untied from all the patterns in your life that bring you pain

don't reprimand my inner child when dance in the rain

5.) try it now music and lyrics are all I need to think about to quiet the storm in my heart when it gets too loud. flowers and rainbows and butterflies, bees and birds come to my window to comfort my heart when it hurts. sounds like a fairytale but it's a life you can choose:

living the simple life and you've got nothing to lose.

try it now, come on try it now if you doubt that it could be true
take a trip out into the blue
it's all waiting there just for you try it now, you've got to try it to see for yourself

what you don't need and don't love you can give away. only the good stuff you really care about should stay. less will be more once you simplify the way you live. you might own nothing but still you'll have plenty to give.

Lea: less will be more once you simplify the way you live
Lea: you might own nothing but still you'll have plenty to give

6.) early (dare to be free) early

the day is dawning somehow it feels like a warning this day will be great and I just can't wait all the birds start singing 'bout the joy this day will be bringing like in memories from long long ago everything's peaceful and new like a dream coming true and the sun starts rising peeking over a golden horizon putting fire on cloud after cloud and my heart sings out loud this is how life could be

if you dare to be free

slowly

I open the back door my feet on the cold floor breathe in and breathe out I don't need much more beauty of each season fills my eyes and quiets my reason moves my heart, makes my soul spread its wings and I smile while it sings

this is how life could be

if you want to be free
open up your eyes and see
and see
open up, open up
open up your eyes and see

7.) you know how much I love you

you are the one I always turn to you hold me in your hand well, it took so long for me to understand that you were always shining through me even before I knew you knew me you showed me that we all have wings to fly you fill my well when I'm afraid it will run dry help me to never give up trying shower me with hope when I am crying I know you're there whenever I'm in need and I know that you want me to succeed look, I know I can fulfill it your design unfolds before me bit by bit slowly but constantly I rise but will I ever see creation through your eyes don't break your heart (in the middle of the night) if you never show how you're really feeling love will always feel like something you're stealing and love will always seem out of sight in the middle of the night (in the middle of the night)

don't break your heart believing that no one cares for you make a new start understanding there is something you can do
underestimating the power that lies in you
celebrating a new you if you don't reduce your level of lying (to yourself!) love will always bring out your fear of flying and love will always seem like a fight

(in the middle of the night)

don't break your heart...

9.) you don't have to understand

now it's out of my hand I have no other choice
but using my voice
to say what I see

whenever I start to sing I'm convinced that I can bring something good that will last something healing the past letting myself free do you have any idea of what discouragement can do?

have you ever explored each weakness inside of you? wish me love and content you don't have to pretend that it comes from your heart you don't have to go my way don't have to agree with what I say all I'm asking of you let me do what I do don't stand in my way all your hurdles and rules all your hard-hitting tools all the secrets and lies are not worth the price you urge me to pay

I know that you know exactly
you know what I go through because you've been there too wish me love like a friend
from the start

whenever I think of you I first have to get through the fact that I am afraid but I was not made
to conquer your pride
I am afraid

10.) give a little love

give a little light
give a little freedom
give a little gift: Spend one moment of each day with peace on your mind use that moment to say:

I can make a change
I can build a bridge
I can move a mountain I can be the change I wish to see heading for the best that I can be

you can make a change you can build a bridge you can move a mountain give a little love every day everybody hurts everybody cries everybody suffers still we can create a reason to believe whatever may come next will bring relief

11.) whatever my life will bring

I'll be dancing and I will sing will I be rich and famous poor and nameless I don't know but I'm gonna be alright

I'm gonna be alright you're gonna be alright we're gonna be alright whatever our lives will bring

12.) you are here

you are here and I feel like I've never lived without you. you are near and I feel like I've never lived alone you weave flowers in my hair to show me that you care about the light in my eyes we hold hands and we both smile in silence for a while and time stands still while the moment dies

you are here...

I've seen the fire in your heart when you're afraid to start to put your dreams into play I'll be there right by your side when you're about to hide from all the ghosts on your way

don't hide away.
listen to what your heart has to say
don't hide away
